From the DGP's Desk

Odisha Police celebrated its eighty-first formation day on April 1 this year. From strength of 4000 personnel at the time of its raising in the year 1936, the strength of Odisha Police today is more than 67,000. True, the manpower and other resources of the state police have increased substantially in the last eight decade of its existence, but so are the duties, responsibilities and challenges to policing that have gone up exponentially during this period. The expectations of the citizens for better access to police services and more accountability on the part of the police in its functioning are the corollaries to the paradigms of good governance. We have to tune ourselves to such citizen centric police service in the years ahead.

In the last quarter our drive against the antisocial elements, tender and transport mafia has been encouraging and will continue unabated till we are able to completely crush their network and instill an environment of security and peace in the state. Our anti-maoist operations have been encouraging with positive outcome. Congratulations to our officers and men who are in the forefront of such operations for their relentless and untiring efforts in fighting out the extremists, which have also been appreciated at the national level.

Odisha Police is committed to proactive and people friendly policing. I am happy to note that some of our initiatives for senior citizens and women have been recognized at the all India level and won awards. I will urge upon the Odisha police to innovate and bring out novelties within the constraints of the resources and win the confidence and trust of the people.

From the Editor...

The third issue of the Newsletter will be released on the auspicious occasion of SriGundicha. In spite of best of our efforts, some of the units have gone unrepresented in this edition as no input was forthcoming. In fact, we went to the extent of pursuing with some establishments for sharing their stories with us after coming across the coverage of the good initiatives in the newspaper!

One particular initiative of Aska Police Station is worth mentioning. The "Ama Police Samiti" of Aska Police Station under the leadership of the IIC organized a function to felicitate the meritorious students of HSC Examination under Aska Block. Interestingly, this was one of the suggestions of Hon'ble Prime Minister in the DGP Conference 2015 for improving the image of the police and has been included as an actionable agenda point. A worthy story would have been missed out, had the PRO of Police Headquarters not noticed it in the newspaper and pursued with the IIC to share it with us.

I request all heads of the Districts, Battalions, Units and establishments to contribute their achievements. An e-version of this issue will be available in Odisha Police website.
